Notice About Public Participation at CCCD Board Meetings

As of March 20, 2020, the Compton Community College District grounds are currently closed to students, employees and the public due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. To reduce the potential impact and spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19), and given the limited space available in the Compton College Board Room, the Compton Community College District July 21, 2020 meeting of the Board of Trustees will be moved to an online meeting via the free Zoom conferencing app. The intent is not to limit public participation, but rather comply with Governor Newsom’s Executive Order N-33-20. The online meeting will be conducted according to the following guidelines:

- Public comment will be allowed as required by law. Those wishing to make public comments are asked to submit their comments by email to pvanbrown@compton.edu.
- All email comments received by 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 21, 2020, will be provided to the Board of Trustees and made publicly available during the Zoom meeting. Email comments will be read aloud and will be subject to the Board’s three-minute limit on public comment.
